

PLEASE NOTE that TruthQuest History does not require the use of any “spine” resources, as innumerable topic-specific books, such as can be found at a library, are cited in each section of the TruthQuest History guides. However, we have been asked to also include pertinent citations to the most popular "spine" resources (so-called because they provide thorough, narrative coverage of the entire period) by families who enjoy having a “spine” on hand for times when they are unable to find topic-specific resources.

Those choosing to use a spine, usually select just one for their entire family, unless the children are spaced at vastly differing comprehension levels. Thus, if you decide to use a spine, please think of purchasing just one, and do try to avoid “overkill” or “stealing the thunder” of the wonderful supplemental books you’ll want your children to enjoy, which bring so much adventure to the learning of history. (Please note that we do not sell any spine resources, as they are not at all necessary to the use of TruthQuest History.)

We also list here some of the "general resources" cited frequently, either because we consider them to be important (they are so noted) or because we have been asked to include them. Please remember, though, that TruthQuest History can be used with whichever resources are available to you. God does provide!

Spine Lists

Age of Revolution II

Comprehensive spines, which provide thorough narrative coverage of the entire period:

- **Story of the Great Republic* by H.A. Guerber Gr. 3-7
- **This Country of Ours* and **Island Story*, by H.E. Marshall Gr. 3-8
- **Sweet Land of Liberty* by Charles Coffin Gr. 6-12
While Story of Liberty was highly recommend, Sweet Land of Liberty does not have special significance, and other narrative resources may be preferred. The hardback reprint uses the original title: **Old Times in the Colonies*.
- **Basic History of the United States: Vol. 2 & 3* by Clarence Carson Gr. 9-12
This contains important ideas, but is a challenging read for all but advanced students.

General resources, which either 1) cover world history by making key points about multiple periods or by offering a brief summary of each, or 2) discuss selected events of significance in the period:

- **From Sea to Shining Sea for Children* and **Sounding Forth the Trumpet for Children* Gr. 1-5
by Peter Marshall & David Manuel
Some appreciate this book's attempt to see God's hand in history; others do not. Strongly northern point of view in regard to Civil War issues.
- **Story of the World: Volume 3* by Susan Wise Bauer Gr. 3-6
- **Trial and Triumph: Stories from Church History*, by Richard Hannula Gr. 5-12
- **From Sea to Shining Sea* and **Sounding Forth the Trumpet* Gr. 6-12

by Peter Marshall & David Manuel

Some appreciate this book's attempt to see God's hand in history; others do not. Strongly northern point of view in regard to Civil War issues.

**Seven Men Who Rule the World from the Grave*, by Dave Breese Gr. 8-12

This book contains some very important insights, and will be cited in the succeeding TruthQuest History guide as well.

**History Through the Eyes of Faith* by Ronald Wells Gr. 9-12

**How Should We Then Live?* by Francis Schaeffer [book or video format] Gr. 9-12

One of the most important resources you will ever use! Highly significant and highly recommended! It will also thus be cited throughout the remainder of the TruthQuest History series. The video series is in many church libraries.
